Letter Rogatory: If, in the course of an investigation into an offence, an application is made by the investigating officer or any officer superior in rank to the investigating officer that evidence may be available in a country or place outside India, any criminal court may issue a Letter Rogatory/letter of request to a court or any authority in that country or place competent to deal with such request to examine orally any person supposed to be acquainted with facts and circumstances of the case and to record his statement made in the course of such examination and also to require such person or any other person to produce any document or thing which may be in his possession pertaining to the case and to forward all the evidence so taken or collected or the authenticated copies thereof or the thing so collected to the court issuing such letter. Letters Rogatory/letters of request are issued to obtain evidence required in investigation of criminal cases and not used for extradition of fugitive offenders. Although, the instrument of request is referred generally as a letter rogatory", the terms "letter rogatory" and "letter of request" (which is used specifically in the Hague Evidence Convention) have come to be virtually synonymous in actual practice.

Government has sent 120 letters Rogatory to foreign countries during the last five years as per following details: 1997—27,2000—24, 2001—25,2002—18, and 2003 (upto June)-16.

Similarly, Government has received 326 letters rogatory from foreign countries as per following details: 1999-73, 2000—62, 2001—74, 2002—56, and 2003 (upto June)-61.

No Letters Rogatory are pending with the Ministry of External Affairs.
